

The Foundations Are Not Destroyed Psalm 11

Introduction: What can the righteous do?

Outline of the Psalm

1. Psalm 11 is a psalm of trust: “In the LORD I take refuge” (1)
2. It is written to counteract the advice of the fearful. (1b-3)

Who are these advisors?

What advice do they bring?

3. David’s Conviction: The Foundations are not destroyed (4-7)
  - a. The Lord is in his holy Temple
  - b. The Lord is on his Throne
  - c. The Lord sees and tests the children of men.

Conclusion: There is something the Righteous can do!

Negatively

Do not assume you deserve to be chosen

Do not demand justice for yourself/others:

Do not wish the Lord’s wrath would fall on others

Positively:

Receive the truth of the gospel 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18

Open your eyes: The Righteous will behold his face.
Psalm 11:7

The Foundations Are Not Destroyed Psalm 11

Introduction: What can the righteous do?

Outline of the Psalm

1. Psalm 11 is a psalm of trust: “In the LORD I take refuge” (1)
2. It is written to counteract the advice of the fearful. (1b-3)

Who are these advisors?

What advice do they bring?

3. David’s Conviction: The Foundations are not destroyed (4-7)
  - a. The Lord is in his holy Temple
  - b. The Lord is on his Throne
  - c. The Lord sees and tests the children of men.

Conclusion: There is something the Righteous can do!

Negatively

Do not assume you deserve to be chosen

Do not demand justice for yourself/others:

Do not wish the Lord’s wrath would fall on others

Positively:

Receive the truth of the gospel 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18

Open your eyes: The Righteous will behold his face.
Psalm 11:7